Spring OPA Campout

Back to Basics

May 17—20, 2024

Harriston Community Centre

OPA's Independent members, led by Michael & Ruth Taziar welcomed 32 units to the Harriston Community Centre for a simplified, "back to basics" campout. See pages 3-5 and page 8 for more details and photos.

Fall OPA 2024

Aug. 30—Sept. 2, 2024

Bubba's Redneck Campout

The Tri-County Travellers are preparing some redneck fun for the Fall long weekend at Brigden Fairgrounds. See details on page 9.

Highlights from Voting Delegates Meeting

Check out pages 6-7 for important information pertaining to OPA, including our slate of officers for 2025-2026., membership numbers, financial report, pull tabs & Five Year Plan survey results.

Reports

Retiree Rally

June 10—14, 2024

Norwich Community Centre

The clocks a tickin' but there's still time to get registered for this year's Retiree Rally. This is one of our best campouts of the year, with 3 meals per person, games, live entertainment, guest speaker, and hands-free sewer pump outs. See page 10 for details.

Campvention 2024

Herkimer, New York

June 23—29, 2024

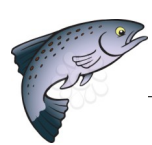

A dozen families from Ontario are planning to drive the short distance to New York State for the 2024 Campvention. See details on page 11. There's still time to register.

Conservation & Recruitment

Our members continue to make an effort to support local conservation and wildlife projects. See page 2 for details. Also, efforts continue to attract new members to our chapters and provincial association. Page 2 has more info and photos.

Conservation Efforts

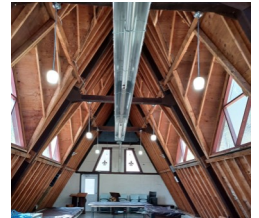

Springwater Conservation Area

Members of the Tri-County Travellers assisted the Springwater Conservation Area by selling Day Passes for the annual Trout Fishing Derby. They also replaced broken boards in picnic tables. Shown below are Brian & Karen Chatfield. Also in attendance during the Opening weekend were Lew & Lynn Acre, Robert & Karen Chamberlain, Ben & Linda Vandevyvere, Tim Small, Dave & Connie Skillings, John & Shelley Scott.

Attawandaron Scout Camp

Members of the Sarnia 4Ts with help from Tri-County Travellers raised money last year by collecting $5/unit/day for camping plus they split & stacked wood which was sold to raise funds. Those funds plus the camping fees were used to replace windows, siding and doors to the Beaver Lodge (shown), and upgrades to the interior of the chapel.

Recruitment Efforts

Lew & Lynn Acre (standing) and John Scott (sitting) attended the Outdoor Sportsman Show at Strathfordville on April 20, 2024 to promote OPA & FCRV and recruit new members.

SPRING OPA CAMPOUT BACK TO THE BASICS

KEEP
SIMPLE

Registration was handled by Michael & Ruth Taziar, the chairmen for Spring OPA campout. Above: Michael Taziar registers Lynn Sampson (and Jim too!). Thirty-two units were onsite. The campout was hosted by OPA's Independent members.

Friday's evening entertainment was a funny movie, "Waking Ned Devine", shown on a big screen TV mounted on the wall. The movie experience was complete with sweet and salty snacks provided by Ruth Taziar.

Saturday Morning C.A.M.P. Campers Actively Moving Program

Saturday morning brought 6 campers out for a brisk morning walk around the streets of Harriston. This year they enjoyed seeing various decorated promotional ice cream cones placed around the town.

Washer Toss Tournament

(Above & top right): The final round was a heated match between those older and very experienced against those younger and newer to the game.

Ruth congratulates the first place winners— Don Blenkinsop & Shirley Lawrence.

Second place winners of the washer toss tournament were Adam Sirrs and Angela Cull.

Pull Tab Collection

Wayne & Marilyn Rosenberger (left) set up their collection table and scales on Saturday morning. They collected 99.5 pounds of tabs & crushed cans. Bonnie Mather and Michael Taziar (right) brought along their contributions.

Penny Sale

The Field Directors' Penny sale was a big hit on Saturday afternoon. Three tables were covered with a variety of gently used & new items. The sale raised $135 for the Field Director's Expense fund.

Scholarship & Chapter Fund Raisers

Maureen Blenkinsop, Scholarship chairman, sold 50/50 tickets. The winner, Bonnie Blenkinsop, won $23.

Barb Cronmiller and Don Blenkinsop sold 50/50 tickets for the Brantford Sundowners. The winner, Robert Chamberlain, won $84.

Harriston United Church Beef Supper

Once again the wonderful cooks from the Harriston United Church provided a delicious supper on Saturday night complete with roast beef, horseradish, mashed potatoes & gravy, salad, cauliflower/broccoli casserole, pickles, rolls, juice and a variety of homemade pie for dessert. Second helpings were available for those who wanted more and nobody left hungry.

Card Bingo

Ben Vandevyvre, (left) of the Tri-County Travellers, volunteered to "call" the Bingo on Saturday night.

Several tables were filled with hopeful campers, all trying to win a small wrapped prize.

The final game ended with people scrambling about, snatching up prizes from others. It was all in good fun and nobody got hurt.

The evening ended with a tasty cookie treat provided by the Sarnia 4T's. Shown below are sisters Barbara Skipper and Mabel Douglas of the 4T's.

Camper's Own Church Service

Tim & Lynn Rosenberger (shown left) led the church service at 10 am on Sunday morning. Using the onsite media, they shared a short video , some hymns and choruses from youtube and a thought-provoking sermon. A collection was received for the Harrison Food Bank which raised $288.

Poor Person Lunch

The smell of frying onions greeted hungry campers as they gathered at noon for the Poor Person Lunch fundraiser. Hamburgers, hotdogs and cold pop was sold. $145 was raised for the Harriston Food Bank. Shown left; Dave Skillings mans the grill as Robert Chamberlain supervises.

Ice Cream Sundaes

Dave & Connie Skillings (shown left) were busy at 3:30 pm dishing up bowls of ice cream which were sold to campers. $90 was raised for the Harriston Food Bank.
